Other Events to Attend

HARVEST

Seed to Seal: It's not a slogan, it's our calling. This highlights a big difference between Young Living and other essential oil companies. Young Living is proud to set the standard for essential oil purity and authenticity, by carefully monitoring the production of their oils through the unique Seed to Seal® process. From the time the seed is sourced until the oil is sealed in the bottle, they apply the most rigorous quality controls possible to ensure that you are receiving essential oils exactly the way nature intended. The unique part, you are able to participate in this process first hand, seeing where and how you get your essential oils. Combined with first rate training on product and business, the question isn't, "why would I want to go," but, "why wouldn't I go?"

INTRO EVENTS

Intro events are put on by leaders in Young Living as well as Young Living Corporate. These events are a great place to invite those you know, to experience the company and products with professional presenters, in a fun atmosphere. Many times there will be product at the event to purchase and take home that very day. Keep an eye on Young Living's calendar, updates from your leader and Vital 180's calendar for a time and place near you.

BEAUTY SCHOOL

A fun, energetic time for those interested in the skin and beauty solutions Young Living has to offer. Not only do you get first rate applicable product knowledge, it can also be a great getaway for the ladies to reconnect, rejuvenate and get back a little of that sparkle.

EVENTS YOU AND YOUR TEAM HOLD

At this stage of the game in your business, you are a sponge, soaking up anything about Young Living product and knowledge relating to the profession. Any training that you can attend will push you faster and further in a direction of excellence. Remember, any of these events can be used to help you introduce others to all that is Young Living.
